LOUTKOVÁ FAUST INSCENACE

A puppet walks into a bar...and into a story from which he can never escape. Loutková FAUST Inscenace is an original tragicomic tale about avarice, temptation, and the danger of calling on the powers-that-be for a helping hand. Created and performed by Zuzana Smolová (CZ) and Peter Gaffney (US), Loutková FAUST Inscenace combines puppetry and live music, with performances in English for international audience.

ABOUT US

We are itinerant theater duo Zuzana Smolová and Peter Gaffney with professional experience in both conventional and experimental puppet theater, physical theater and musical productions. We are interested in timeless tales that reflect contemporary predicaments, stories from the labyrinths that capture us and shadowy midstream moments of escape, transformation and change.
